AT&T SUPPORTS CRIME STOPPERS BUFFALO IN KEEPING WESTERN NEW YORK SAFER

BUFFALO, NY - Crime Stoppers Buffalo Chairman Kevin J. Hoffman has announced a major partnership with AT&T that will help the organization fulfill its mission of helping to keep the community safe from dangerous criminals. Crime Stoppers Buffalo relies upon anonymous tips and information called in or texted in to the organization's anonymous tip line number 716-867-6161. This information when utilized can lead to the arrest of criminals resulting in a cash reward to the person providing the information. AT&T has teamed up with Crime Stoppers Buffalo to provide complimentary phone services to support this mission.

"The Board of Directors of Crime Stoppers Buffalo are excited and grateful to have the support of AT&T. This support by AT&T will allow us to fund even more rewards to help keep our community safe," said Hoffman.

"AT&T is proud to support Crime Stoppers Buffalo in its critical mission to assist law enforcement capture violent criminals and in turn make the community safer for the residents of Western New York," said Marissa Shoreinstein, New York president, AT&T. "AT&T is honored to collaborate with the organization and applauds them for the vital safety services they provide to the community."

Crime Stoppers Buffalo mission is to make the communities of Western New York safe from violent criminals, educate students on crime prevention and remove illegal weapons from the streets. The organization serves Erie, Niagara, Orleans, Genesee, Wyoming, Chautauqua, Cattaraugus and Allegany counties and is a not-for-profit 501 (c) (3) public service organization. Crime Stoppers was created in the Buffalo area in 1990. The organization assists law enforcement agencies in their efforts to apprehend wanted individuals and getting tips on older unsolved crimes. Crime Stoppers Buffalo regularly pays out rewards for information leading to arrests. Citizens are encouraged to come forward anonymously with information regarding the wanted persons.
